This indispensable activity book consists of over 300 cards on perforated sheets. It provides a wealth of questions and materials on a variety of issues such as life experience, the workplace, sports, hobbies. Prompts and key vocabulary are provided to boost student confidence. This handbook is ideal for pair work and groups. It is aimed at lower-intermediate to advanced levels.

'The Art of Small Talk'

Students often complain that their main difficulty in English is not discussing business but small talk before or after the meeting or even worse ... at the dinner table.

What should they talk about?

How should they respond?
